“JA is dedicated to giving students the skills they need to compete in today’s global economy. And when Central Florida’s youth succeed, our community benefits from a strong, well-educated workforce and engaged citizens.”

– Richard T. Crotty
Mayor of Orange County (2001-2011)
Oak Ridge High School graduate

“As a graduate of Oak Ridge High School, I’m delighted that JA has invested in my alma mater with its signature enthusiasm for our community’s young people and dedication to the principles of the free enterprise system.”

– Glenda E. Hood
Mayor of Orlando (1992–2003)
Florida Secretary of State (2003–2005)
Oak Ridge High School graduate

The JA Academy for Leadership & Entrepreneurship is designed to prepare future entrepreneurs, as well as business and community leaders. Investment in the JA Academy provides its supporters with the opportunity to be an integral part of this vital, innovative endeavor.

At Junior Achievement of Central Florida, we help students make the connection between education, the free enterprise system and their dreams for tomorrow. Now we’re taking that mission a step further with the JA Academy at Oak Ridge High School. Join us as we move forward with the most innovative and comprehensive approach to youth education and development with an investment in the JAA Scholarship Fund. All scholarship funds will be used to provide the exceptional students at the JA Academy with a one-of-a-kind education.

Yes! I want to support LEADERSHIP and ENTREPRENEURSHIP EDUCATION at the JA Academy. My contribution to the JAA Scholarship Fund of $4,000 will enable one student to have a four-year education focused on developing the next generation of leaders, entrepreneurs and community contributors.
