

MIXING IT UP TO MAKE CHANGE

Eighteenth Annual

JUNIOR ACHIEVEMENT BUSINESS HALL OF FAME

KANSAS CITY, MO (June 7, 2018) – Bob Regnier, President and CEO of Bank of Blue Valley, Ed Honesty Jr., President and COO of Best Harvest Bakeries (BHB) and Andy Fromm, CEO of Service Management Group (SMG) will be the next group of business leaders inducted into the Junior Achievement of Greater Kansas City Business Hall of Fame. The honorees will be recognized at a luncheon event on Friday, Nov. 16, 2018 at The Gallery Event Space.

"This is our 18th year of recognizing folks that have done exceptional work in the community," said Pat McCown, co-founder of McCownGordon Construction and 2017 Business Hall of Fame Laureate. "There aren't too many initiatives in Kansas City that have happened without these leaders' fingerprints on them."

For nearly two decades, Bob Regnier, Ed Honesty Jr. and Andy Fromm have been instrumental in shaping the Kansas City business community, becoming local household names for their innovation, products and services. They also impact their community civically through their involvement in numerous philanthropic boards in the Kansas City area.

In addition to the 2018 honorees, Junior Achievement will also award t.Loft co-founders Jill and Brandon Minton with the first presentation of the KC Innovator Award. KC Innovators are recognized for their positive disruption in their industry, creation of jobs and opportunities, and innovation applied to solve critical social and economic problems.
