JUNIOR ACHIEVEMENT OF GREATER ST. LOUIS ANNOUNCES NEW BOARD MEMBER

Chesterfield, MO – Junior Achievement of Greater St. Louis, Inc. (JASTL), a non-profit organization that provides financial literacy, work readiness, and entrepreneurial education to K-12 students, announced that Angela L. Drumm will serve on the organization’s Board of Directors. Drumm is Partner with Carmody MacDonald P.C.

Drumm is an attorney specializing in the areas of Banking & Finance and Real Estate. In addition to her law practice, Drumm has been a frequent contributor to “TaxWise,” a quarterly column about the intricacies of tax law, published in The St. Louis Bar Journal. Drumm has been a longtime volunteer with JASTL and recently served on the JASTL’s Young Professionals’ Board. Drumm is actively involved in other professional and non-profit organizations, including Commercial Real Estate Women (CREW) St. Louis and Volunteer Lawyer and Accountants for the Arts. Drumm received a B.S.B.A in Finance, Banking, and Real Estate from the University of Missouri-Columbia and a J.D. from Washington University School of Law.

“Serving on the board of a growing nonprofit, like Junior Achievement of Greater St. Louis, is a commitment to the young people in our community,” Lori Jacob, JASTL President and CEO said. “We are thrilled to welcome Angela Drumm to the board of directors and look forward to her fresh insights and perspective.”

The board addition comes at a time of rapid growth for the organization, including an increase in students from the previous school year and a commitment to including more technology in current programs.

“Junior Achievement offers students educational opportunities that extend beyond the standard classroom environment. I am excited and honored to serve on the JASTL’s Board of Directors. Together we will continue to promote Junior Achievement programs and strive to inspire and impact more children’s lives.” – Angela L. Drumm
