

“I am ecstatic for my future in business and Junior Achievement has given me the knowledge, excitement, courage and readiness for what is to come. I am determined to succeed because of this outstanding program.”

– Gwendalyn,
JA Company Program Student

JA Company Program®

Ever thought about being an entrepreneur? Put your idea into action with JA Company Program

Do you want to learn what it takes to be an entrepreneur? Interested in someday owning your own business? The JA Company Program gives you the chance to put your ideas into action by starting and running your own startup with other students and with the guidance of business professionals.

- Learn to start and run a startup
- Apply entrepreneurial thinking to all aspects of school, work and life
- Build self-confidence
- Expand your network by meeting other teen entrepreneurs and business professionals
- Enhance your resume
- Improve your marketable skills
- Prepare for college and beyond
- Have fun
- No cost to participate
- Make money
- Opportunity to represent your startup on the national stage at the JA National Student Leadership Summit

If a kid has any interest in starting or running a business, JA is unquestionably the place to start. Not to be the next Mark Cuban. To be the person any of us dream of being.

—Mark Cuban, JA Alumnus and Serial Entrepreneur

JA Alumni are 143% more likely to be involved with starting a business than the general public

See the JA Company Program in action at https://youtu.be/r_MRn8Y7bF

How to get started

Junior Achievement of Greater St. Louis

Contact Sheila Farrell at sfarrell@jastl.org, 636-728-0707 or visit www.jastl.org

Program Sites

- Junior Achievement, 17339 North Outer Forty Road, Chesterfield, MO 63005
Program starts October 11, 2017, runs weekly from 4:30-6:30 p.m.
- Microsoft Store – St. Louis Galleria, St. Louis, MO.
Program starts October 10, 2017, runs weekly from 3:00-5:00 p.m.

Sign up

To sign up visit www.jastl.org or contact Sheila Farrell at sfarrell@jastl.org

Junior Achievement®
of Greater St. Louis