

Metal Working Volunteers

Matt Sullivan, Metal Casting Program Coordinator of Thaddeus Stevens, will instruct students through the metal casting process. Volunteers will assist the students as they use sand to make models and complete a casting and polishing project. JA will provide laboratory coats, but please dress accordingly as this module tends to be somewhat dusty.