Today we talked about types of businesses in our community. The business you worked in today was the “Sweet “O” Donuts shop. You worked in groups with your classmates to produce donuts together.

While working on groups, what did you learn about workplace skills such as teamwork and why do you think this is important in your future?