Today we talked about types of businesses. The business you worked in today was the “Sweet “O” Donuts shop. After the group activity, you were asked to think of a new kind of donut to sell and then draw a picture of it with a brief description.

While thinking like an entrepreneur (people who start their own business), what did you learn about yourself in terms of creative thinking and risk taking that will help you in your future?
Imagine you are a donut baker. Be creative and come up with a new kind of donut to sell.

Draw your new donut.

Now, write a brief paragraph describing your donut.
