

T . Michael Price

Mike Price joined First Commonwealth Bank in 2007 as President and in 2012 became President and CEO of First Commonwealth Financial Corporation. From starting out as a bank teller, Mike has more than 30 years of management experience in the financial services industry.

In light of 2020's unique challenges, Mike helped lead First Commonwealth through many successes. From funding nearly $600 million PPP loans, protecting an estimated 80,000 jobs, in support of businesses and their employees, to the unveiling of a new digital banking platform for both personal and business customers, First Commonwealth lived up to its distinction by Forbes as one of the "World's Best Banks" and the second-best bank in Pennsylvania.

Mike received his BS degree from the University of Utah and earned his MBA from Cleveland State University. He recently completed his term as Chair of the Pennsylvania Bankers Association and is also the current Chair of the Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland's Community Depository Institutions Advisory Council. With this position, Mike represents the Cleveland region in Washington D.C. at Federal Reserve Board meetings. He and his wife, Heather, have five daughters.
