

ELEMENTARY PROGRAMS: Virtual Options

JA Ourselfes® (Kindergarten) introduces students to personal economics and the choices consumers make to meet their needs and wants. Students learn about the role of money in society and gain practical information about earning, saving, and sharing money.

- Concepts: Buying, choices, costs, earning, entrepreneur, giving, goals, goods and services, interests, money, needs and wants, saving, society, spending, values
- Skills: Counting, decision making, drawing conclusions, following directions, graphing and graph interpretation, listening, matching and classifying, predicting, problem solving, reading and writing, self-assessment, sequencing, social skills, teamwork, verbal communication, vocabulary building
- Program material and volunteer videos available through Google Classroom.

JA Our Families® (1st) introduces students to the concepts of families, neighborhoods, money, and needs and wants. Students explore the ways in which businesses provide goods, services, and jobs for families.

- Concepts: Business, earning, employment, entrepreneurship, family, fill a need, goods and services, income, job, money, needs and wants, neighborhood, shelter, skills, spend, symbols, work
- Skills: Analyzing information, creative thinking, decision making, differentiating, following directions, listening and responding, making observations, map reading, math calculations, reading, recognizing and interpreting symbols, verbal communication, working in pairs
- Program material and volunteer videos available through Google Classroom.

JA Our Community® (2nd) introduces students to work readiness and early elementary grades social studies learning objectives, including how citizens benefit from and contribute to a community's success.

- Concepts: Businesses, careers, citizenship, coins, community, goods and services, government, innovation, jobs, production, needs and wants, skills, taxes, voting
- Skills: Creativity, critical thinking, collaboration, decision making, idea development, making choices, map reading
- Program material and volunteer videos available through Google Classroom.

JA Our City® (3rd) introduces students to the choices people have with money. Students learn about the importance of economic exchange in a city and how entrepreneurs promote a healthy economy. (Grade 3)

- Concepts: Banking, business, business decisions, circular flow of money, city, consumer, currency, deposit, donate, economic development, earn, entrepreneur, goods, government, income, interdependence, jobs, money choices, producer, save, savings, savings account, services, spend, taxes, withdrawal
- Skills: Brainstorming, conceptualizing, critical thinking, decision making, developing ideas, drawing conclusions, evaluating payment types, following directions, listening, making choices, making observations, mapping information, planning a business, problem solving, reading, teamwork, verbal communication, working in groups, writing
- Program material and volunteer videos available through Google Classroom.

JA Our Region® (4th) introduces students to the intersection of entrepreneurship and upper elementary grades social studies learning objectives. Students are provided with a practical approach to starting a business. Five volunteer-led sessions required.

- Concepts: Advertising, business fundamentals, capital resources, entrepreneur, expense, finance tracking, goods and services, human resources, innovation, interdependence, loss, manufacturing, natural resources, price, products, profit, region, resources, revenue, risk and reward, services, supply, supply chain, trade, traits, transportation
- Skills: Analyzing a diagram, analyzing information, assembling parts, categorizing data, cooperative trading, decision making, evaluating alternatives, following directions, mathematics, oral and written communication, presenting information, problem solving, reading for understanding, working in groups and pairs
- Program material and volunteer videos available through Google Classroom.

	JA Our Nation® (5th) provides students with practical information about the U.S. free market system and how it serves as an economic engine for businesses and careers. Students examine the need for entrepreneurial and innovative thinking to meet the requirements of high-growth, high-demand careers in a global business economy. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Concepts: Businesses, careers, career clusters, collaboration, communication, competition, competitor, consumer, critical thinking, engineering, employees, employers, entrepreneur, free market economy, global economy, goods and services, human capital, innovation, invention, interdependence, job specialization, opportunity cost, product, producer, profit, resume, skills, technology, work readiness • Skills: Analyzing occupations, analyzing information, brainstorming, collaboration, communication, creative thinking, decision making, estimating, following written instructions, interpersonal skills, interpreting economic issues, map reading, organizing information, prioritizing, problem solving, reasoning, speaking and listening, STEM skills, teamwork, working in pairs, writing • Program material and volunteer videos available through Google Classroom.
	JA More than Money® (3rd-5th) teaches students about money-management, goods and services, and global markets. Students learn a practical approach to starting a business and making smart decisions about managing money. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Concepts: Advertising, bank account, business, business loan, business plan, consumer, deposit, earn, employee, entrepreneur, ethics, expenses, exports, financial institutions, goods and services, identify personal interests and goals, imports, income, market research, money, money management, opportunity cost, profit, skills, withdrawal, work environment • Skills: Asking relevant questions and listening for information, comparing and contrasting, computation, considering personal traits and interests, deductive reasoning, empathy, following directions, matching and classifying, presentation, problem solving, reading and following directions, self-employed, teamwork, thinking and working cooperatively, critical thinking, using vocabulary in a meaningful way • Program material available as a PDF file.
	JA BizTown™ (4th-6th) Elementary students are not old enough to drive, work, vote, or be the boss. But that does not stop them from operating banks, managing restaurants, writing checks, using debit cards, and voting for a mayor at JA BizTown, where students connect the dots between what they learn in school and the real world. Topics include Financial Literacy, Community and Economy, Work and Career Readiness, Business Management. 13 foundation lessons with 52 optional extension activities, followed by a visit day at JA BizTown. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Student workbook available as hard copy, printable PDF or fillable PDF for in-class or remote learning. • Student Self-Guided curriculum coming this fall.
	JA BizTown Adventures (4th-6th) Offers a virtual, learning opportunity where students take on the roles of chief executive officer, chief financial officer, marketing director, sales manager, and consumer via five online, self-guided adventures. Not meant to replace nor take away from the traditional in-person simulation, the adventures can be used as an alternative simulation experience when or if students are unable to visit an onsite location. Alternatively, the adventures may be explored before or after the on-site simulation, enhancing the educational experience. Grades 4-6 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Curriculum options for traditional classroom or self-guided delivery available.

ELEMENTARY PROGRAMS: Supplements

	MY JA Journey (PreK-1st) is a JA of Greater St. Louis supplement student activity booklet containing grade and age-appropriate learning worksheets that focus on: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Want vs Needs • Community and Jobs • Coin Values • Available as a workbook or a PDF downloadable file.
	My JA Journey (2nd-3rd) is a JA of Greater St. Louis supplement student activity booklet containing grade and age-appropriate learning worksheets that focus on: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Money and Spending • Community • Business • Available as a workbook or a PDF downloadable file.
	My JA Journey (4th-5th) is a JA of Greater St. Louis supplement student activity booklet containing grade and age-appropriate learning worksheets that focus on: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Entrepreneurial skills • Self-Knowledge • Budgeting • Available as a workbook or a PDF downloadable file.
	JA Inspiring My Journey – JA USA (K-2nd) is a Junior Achievement USA supplement student activity booklet containing grade and age-appropriate learning worksheets that focus on: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Coins recognition and savings • Goods and Services • Careers • Available as a PDF downloadable file.
	JA Inspiring My Journey – JA USA (3rd-5th) is a Junior Achievement USA supplement student activity booklet containing grade and age-appropriate learning worksheets that focus on: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Financial Literacy • Entrepreneurship • Career Planning • Available as a PDF downloadable file.
	JA Money Talks (3rd-5th) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • JA Money Tracker and Bingo - How do you keep track of the money you have in a bank? You use a money tracker of course! Learn how to use a money tracker with this video. Play Bingo and keep track of the money in your Money Tracker worksheet. • JA Cha-Ching Videos - introduces students to financial literacy and how people manage their money and the importance of economic exchange within a city. • This program includes a PDF file and online content.

	JA STEMBOT - JA Website (3rd-5th) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Learn about STEM careers and practice STEM skills while solving puzzles and playing games. Available as an online App.
	JASTL Career Exploration Workbook (3rd-5th) students learn about a range of career options across multiple career clusters Following participation students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Identify the 16 career pathways. Careers within the 16 career pathways Available as a workbook or a PDF downloadable file.
	All in It Together (2nd-3rd) is designed for elementary school students Following participation in the supplement, students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Describe the importance of the whole family working together to save money by being thrifty. Recall and apply specific strategies for spending less and saving more. Spanish Version Available Available as a workbook or a PDF downloadable file.
	Junior Achievement $AVE, USA (3rd-5th) JA Searching for Savings - We know it can be difficult to speak to or teach your kids about money-management issues. We hope that you find these lessons helpful with those conversations! <ul style="list-style-type: none"> It Is Never Too Early - Deciding on a College Vacation Time - Let's Get Away! Savvy Shopping and Saving - What's it Worth to You? The Legendary Lemonade Stand - Cost of Doing Business Greater Than or Less Than - Want and Need Counting Coins - Recognizing Currency Interactive Lessons (online Supplement) – “Planet Yenom” Elementary Available as a workbook or a PDF downloadable file.
	Analyzing Credit Cards (4th-5th) is designed for elementary school students Following participation in the resource, students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Recognize the fact that credit cards are not good or bad, but how they are used can have positive or negative consequences for a family and for the economy. Analyze data related to U.S. credit cards and consumers. Spanish Version Available Available as a workbook or a PDF downloadable file.
	JA Be Money $mart Supplement (3rd-8th) JA Be Money $mart provides students the resources and knowledge to take control of their financial destiny. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Its interactive activities allow students to explore the basics of becoming Money $mart. Young students will discover what money is and how banks help us keep it safe. Available as a workbook or a PDF downloadable file.