

ROI for Business

A partnership with Junior Achievement supports employee engagement

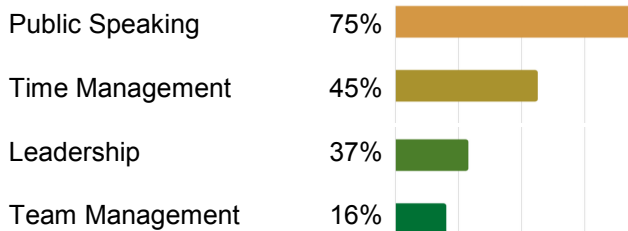

Here's what employees say about their JA volunteer experience:

Here's what employees say about their JA volunteer experience:
97% of JA volunteers gained more respect for their employer because of its involvement with Junior Achievement.

Professional Development

Employees identified skill development after volunteering with JA*:

*Data Source: Junior Achievement of Central Illinois Volunteer Survey 2017-2018

JA provides a rewarding volunteer experience for your employees*

100% Agreed the students were engaged in the program

98% Felt the teacher was supportive during lessons

98% would volunteer again

98% would recommend volunteering with JA to others

“I've been volunteering for JA for many years and have always thoroughly enjoyed participating in this program. JA is a way for me to be engaged in the community, all while having fun and teaching kids about economics and the little things that make the world function. I'm so glad my past and current employer encourage and allow time for community involvement. The programs are age appropriate and are engaging for the students. I'm very proud to be a part of JA!

Andrea Ostling—State Farm