

John Borges

Senior Director- Bimbo Bakeries USA

Mr. Borges began his career at Bimbo Bakeries USA in Accounting in 1994. Over the next 8 years he progressed through the organization in roles of increasing responsibility in FP&A, Project Management, Accounting, and Financial Operations. In 2005 John reached the Director level with responsibility for Reporting & Financial Systems across the business. In 2006 John joined the Thomas' Brand team as Director of Business Development. John was promoted to Senior Director Finance – Bread Brands in 2007 supporting a portfolio of brands worth more than $1 billion. In 2008 responsibility for the Thomas' brands was added to his scope. Since 2009, as Senior Director of Finance, John has lead integration and transformation teams to help create the first national bread company in the United States.

In early 2007 John and his family relocated to Doylestown. John has been married to his wife Jodie for 27 years. Together they have 3 children: Kaitlin 22, Matthew 19, and Jason, 11 years old.

He has a B.S. degree in Finance from Sacred Heart University and an M.B.A. from Nova Southeastern University.

John is active in his church, serving on the Church Council, leading the Finance, Investment, and Audit Committees. John has been involved with Junior Achievement since 2007. He started as a volunteer with the Afterschool Company Program. He has lead the Afterschool program at BBU since 2012.